SCSWIS

social care
and social work
improvement scotland

From 1 April 2011, Scotland has a new regulator and inspector of care and social work services and child protection.

We are Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland, or SCSWIS for short.

From 1 April 2011, the Care Commission and SWIA (Social Work Inspection Agency) will no longer exist. Their work will transfer to SCSWIS along with child protection inspection (previously the responsibility of HMIE).

From 1 April you can find us here:
